

You must not take pictures or video's of your friends or other young people unless you have permission to do so.

If someone is taking pictures of you on their phones, i-pads, i-pods or any other electrical equipment and you don't want them to.

Tell someone.

Remember when you play computer games and watch DVD's, you have to be the correct age according to the

When you are calling, texting or contacting your friends on your phone, or tablets ensure that you are being kind to them.

If someone is saying unkind things to you or about you or taking pictures of you and you are not happy. Tell someone.

Who should I tell?

- Your keyworker, or support worker
- Jackie , Charlotte or Charlene
- Teacher or classroom assistant

Never give out personal details. Including home address, email address phone number or age. If anyone on-line asks you to keep secrets DON'T !!

Your safety is very important to us when you have your educational sleepover

When you go onto the computer you MUST ensure that a member of staff is supervising you.

You can not access social networking sites from Resi.

Websites

UK Council for Child Internet Safety (UKCCIS);
<http://www.education.gov.uk/ukccis/>

Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre (CEOP); <http://ceop.police.uk/>

UK Safer Internet Centre; <http://www.saferinternet.org.uk/>

Childnet International; <http://www.childnet.com/>

Residential has a mobile phone you can use to text and call home. You can also give this number to your family to call you. The number is

0751 904 3098

Being safe on the internet ,mobile phones, I-pads, I-pods and tablets is called

E-safety.

This leaflet is to help to you understand this

You can also use the Den to call out in private or the office phones. If you bring your phone into the residential it must now go into the blue wallet the same as in school.

