As set out in the Governance Handbook, all boards have three core functions:

- 1. Ensuring clarity of the vision, ethos and strategic direction.
- 2. Holding the executive leaders to account for the educational performance of the school(s) and its pupils and the effective and efficient performance management of staff.
- 3. Overseeing the financial performance of the school(s) and making sure that its money is well spent.

Role: The role of a parent governor is not as a spokesperson for the views of parents. They are the same as any other governor on the board, providing a 'parental viewpoint' i.e. representative parents rather than representatives of parents.

Role: The role of a staff governor is the same as any other governor, strategic leadership and holding the Headteacher to account, but also includes providing a 'staff viewpoint'. It is important for prospective staff governors to fully understand the nature of the role prior to appointment. Staff governors are not a spokesperson for the views of all staff, nor should they be held to account in relation to their staff role by the governing board.

Role: A LA governor is a representative of the local authority. The role of a LA governor is the same as any other governor, including providing a 'LA viewpoint', and they should participate in the same way as other governors. They are not required to be affiliated to a political party, although they should be aware of local issues.

Role: Co-opted governors act in the best interests of the school and wider community, but should not be required by others, such as the appointing board or community, to take a particular stance on issues discussed at board meetings.

The chair

Subject to the powers of the Secretary of State in relation to schools causing concern, the board must elect a chair and vice-chair from amongst themselves. The chair, with support from the vice-chair(s) and the clerk, is responsible for ensuring the effective functioning of the board and has a vital role in setting the highest of expectations for professional standards of governance. It is the chair's responsibility to give the board clear leadership and direction, keeping it focused on its core functions.

The chair and vice-chair(s) should encourage the board to work together as an effective team, building its skills, knowledge and experience. The chair should ensure that everyone is actively contributing relevant skills and experience, participating constructively in meetings, and is actively involved in the work of committees. The chair, in conjunction with the clerk, should also ensure that everyone understands the expectations placed upon them and that they receive appropriate induction, training and development. The chair should undertake an annual performance review of the clerk and should look to the clerk, as the governance professional, for advice and information to support their role.

All governors should be familiar with and understand the content of the Self Evaluation Form (SEF) and School Development Plan (SDP). The SEF document describes where school is currently, what it needs to develop and a judgement related to the inspection handbook. Governors may wish to take an interest in one or more of the judgement areas for school and residential and report on their observations at FGB. Both the SEF and SDP are on Governor Hub.
